

R. R. SAVAGE
Real Estate Agent
Office-Room 12, Over Corpus Christi National 35 YEARS a RESIDENT

Corpus Christi & Sons

Y B O D Y ",
AND DAILY HERALD

VOLUME XIII

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1911

SAFE
CAPITAL and SURPLUS $300,000.00

Well Managed
Capable officers and a strong Board of Directors
A large force of polite and capable employees anxious to serve you.

ONE OF THE FINEST ACCOUNT-ING SYSTEMS IN TEXAS

United States Depository, also Depository for the U. S. Postal Funds

These are a few reasons why YOU should put your money in

THE CORPUS CHRISTI NATIONAL BANK

Why Pay Rent
EACH MONTH OF THE COMING YEAR.

Let this Rent Money go into an investment that will mean more than rent paid and nothing saved.

Let us show you our plan to help you.

THE SIDBURY LUMBER CO.

PHONE 62 :: Established 1870 :: PHONE 62

The "Japonica"

Leave Padron Wharf at 2:30 a. m., for Ingleside and Port Aransas (Tarpon) Pore: Ingleside, one round trip; Port Aransas, (Tarpon), $1.00.

Leaves at 8:30, returning in time for excursion trains. Information and tickets sent.

SAXTON & BOUVIER

Office, entrance of Seaside Wharf.

First State Bank

A guaranty Fund Bank. Interest Paid on Time Deposits.

HE TAKES THE CAKE

Bonnie Clark ought to be giving a joyous tan gle. It is her special prerogative to make presents of nice things and nothing could be more than our cakes, especially our fruit cakes, which we have specially baked for the holidays.

Model Steam Bakery

Phone 23

713 Chaparral Street

Nueces Brand Extracts and Baking Powder

will insure your success with your

CHRISTMAS BAKING.

Sugar 15 pounds $1.00, Creamery Butter 35c.

Martin Tea and Coffee Co.
Phone 572

It Pays to Pay Cash

Lots in Corpus Beach Hotel Addition
2 Specially Attractive Lots 65x100
SIDNEY ALLEN,
Room 5 Corpus Christi National Bank Bldg.

ROOSEVELT HAD NO CONTRIBUTION

FROM HARRIMAN FOR 1904 CAM-PAIGN FUND.

SHELDON'S STATEMENT

Says the Sum Given Bliss Was for State Campaign and Not For Teddy.

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Roosevelt had no part in securing a contribution from E. H. Harriman, to the Republi- can Committee in 1904, and none of the money raised by Harriman was used in Roosevelt's campaign, according to what is declared to be "facts in the case," and made public today over the signature of George H. Sheldon, treasurer of the National Republican Committee.

Sheldon, in a letter to Roosevelt suggesting publicity of the history of the contribution in view of the continued publication of the story notwithstanding Roosevelt's denial that he (Roosevelt) asked Harriman for a contribution. Roosevelt approved the suggested publicity and corroborated Sheldon's explanation.

According to Sheldon, Chairman Odell of the state committee of New York told the then treasurer of the National committee, C. N. Bliss, about a week before the election that unless "he had $100,000 from the National committee that the state ticket would be defeated." Bliss told Odell he had no money to give, but Bliss visited Harriman and explained the urgency of the situation.

The next day Harriman handed Odell $100,000 and Bliss himself raised $60,000. This $160,000 was handed directly to Odell, and never went to the treasury of the National committee.

Roosevelt added the only occasion when Harriman spoke to him on the subject was on Harriman's own initiative to request Roosevelt to add him to having the National committee to contribute to the election of Higgins, Republican candidate for governor, in which election Harriman was interested.

Sheldon added the only occasion when Harriman spoke to him on the subject was on Harriman's own initiative to request Roosevelt to add him to having the National committee to contribute to the election of Higgins, Republican candidate for governor, in which election Harriman was interested.

The senator and house republicans will get together during the holidays and have the bill ready by the time the democrats have a measure ready to report.

Regular republicans of the senate will get together during the holidays and have the bill ready by the time the democrats have a measure ready to report.

Regular republicans of the senate will get together during the holidays and have the bill ready by the time the democrats have a measure ready to report.

The general opinion seems to be

that the progressives will take the

choice of democratic and republican

measures and use the strength which

is merger with the democrats would

give them to force amendments to the republican bill.

It seems to be agreed that the progressives will take no step in framing a measure now.

COTTON ACREAGE TO BE REDUCED

SOUTHERN COTTON CONGRESS
COMMITTEE ANNOUNCE PLANS

A PERSONAL CANVAS

OF ALL FARMS IN COTTON BELT WILL BE MADE—REDUCE ACREAGE 25 PER CENT.

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 21.—The executive committee of the Southern Cotton Congress in session here today, adopted a plan for a reduction of acreage next season, suggested by J. G. Anderson of Rock Hill, S. C., with slight modification.

It is proposed that the acreage be reduced 25 per cent, and that individual pledges be secured from farmers and also that rallies be held in every state house in the cotton belt on January 24th, and two days later county rallies be held to aid the movement.

Reports of acreage reduction will be made to President Wilson or the Cotton Congress and figures will be compiled and announced county and township committees will be organized throughout the cotton belt, and said canvassers will be employed to secure pledges in a form authorized by the Farmers' Union.

R. D. Bowen of Paris, Texas, called attention to a report published in the Farmers' Union Journal of Arlington, Texas, that the figures on which the federal government based their figures were distorted and a million and a quarter bales were actually counted twice.

The matter will be taken up with Secretary Wilson at Washington.

REGULAR REPUBLICANS UNITED ON WOOL BILL

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 21.—It was stated today that the wool bill will be framed according to Tall's recommendations and will be prepared by the house Republicans and not by the Senate Republicans who have similar plans suggested.

The Senate and House Republicans will get together during the holidays and have the bill ready by the time the Democrats have a measure ready to report.

Regular Republicans of the Senate will get together during the holidays and have the bill ready by the time the Democrats have a measure ready to report.

The general opinion seems to be that the progressives will take the choice of democratic and republican measures and use the strength which

is merger with the democrats would

give them to force amendments to the republican bill.

It seems to be agreed that the pro-

gressives will take no step in framing a measure now.

That profits of the packers do not exceed 10 per cent on the actual money invested and that profits from sales do not exceed three per cent, that no agreement as to the purchase price of cattle or sale of meat ever existed and that the National Packing Co. was organized in good faith to transact a legitimate business and not to perpetuate any system of fixing prices or to control prices, was alleged.

He also contended that the government's proof of an alleged combination must be confined to the three year period subsequent to 1907. He urged the highest result of economy as causes, that defendants supply less than 70 per cent of meat used in this country, and that three hundred concerns are independent of competition with the indicted packers.

Buckingham detailed the method of selling and the account used by the packers and declared the usual nature of the business made such a system absolutely necessary. He denied every material allegation made by the government.

He also cited the recent decisions of the Supreme Court in the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases as showing the operations of the packers were not unlawful and asserted the public has been benefited by the operations.

That profits of the packers do not exceed 10 per cent on the actual money invested and that profits from sales do not exceed three per cent, that no agreement as to the purchase price of cattle or sale of meat ever existed and that the National Packing Co. was organized in good faith to transact a legitimate business and not to perpetuate any system of fixing prices or to control prices, was alleged.

He also contended that the government's proof of an alleged combination must be confined to the three year period subsequent to 1907. He urged the highest result of economy as causes, that defendants supply less than 70 per cent of meat used in this country, and that three hundred concerns are independent of competition with the indicted packers.

Buckingham is representing Fred Ward and Chas. H. Swift and H. A. Fowler. Attorney Borders represents the Norris group and will speak tomorrow morning.

The general opinion seems to be

that the progressives will take the

choice of democratic and republican

measures and use the strength which

is merger with the democrats would

give them to force amendments to the republican bill.

It seems to be agreed that the pro-

gressives will take no step in framing a measure now.

That profits of the packers do not exceed 10 per cent on the actual money invested and that profits from sales do not exceed three per cent,

that no agreement as to the purchase price of cattle or sale of meat ever existed and that the National Packing Co. was organized in good faith to transact a legitimate business and not to perpetuate any system of fixing prices or to control prices, was alleged.

He also contended that the government's proof of an alleged combination

must be confined to the three year period subsequent to 1907. He urged the highest result of economy as

causes, that defendants supply less

than 70 per cent of meat used in this country, and that three hundred

concerns are independent of competition with the indicted packers.

He also cited the recent decisions of

the Supreme Court in the Standard

Oil and Tobacco cases as showing the operations of the packers were not unlawful and asserted the public has been benefited by the operations of the packers.

He also contended that the government's proof of an alleged combination

must be confined to the three year

period subsequent to 1907. He urged

the highest result of economy as

causes, that defendants supply less

than 70 per cent of meat used in

this country, and that three hundred

concerns are independent of competition with the indicted packers.

He also cited the recent decisions of

the Supreme Court in the Standard

Oil and Tobacco cases as showing the operations of the packers were not unlawful and asserted the public has been benefited by the operations of the packers.

He also contended that the government's proof of an alleged combination

must be confined to the three year

period subsequent to 1907. He urged

the highest result of economy as

causes, that defendants supply less

than 70 per cent of meat used in

this country, and that three hundred

concerns are independent of competition with the indicted packers.